

Our very own little Harry Potter! Before arriving in 2002, Laur had spent the majority of life in an orphanage. He was born prematurely and abandoned as a baby. Laur arrived being unable to speak and ate very little. He is now a bright little spark, attending mainstream school and especially loves 'big boy' tasks like carpentry!

